

My 10 Blessed Days Journey

A Hajj-Inspired Good Deeds Activity Book

This book belongs to:

My goal for these 10 days:

The Story of Prophet Ibrahim (AS)

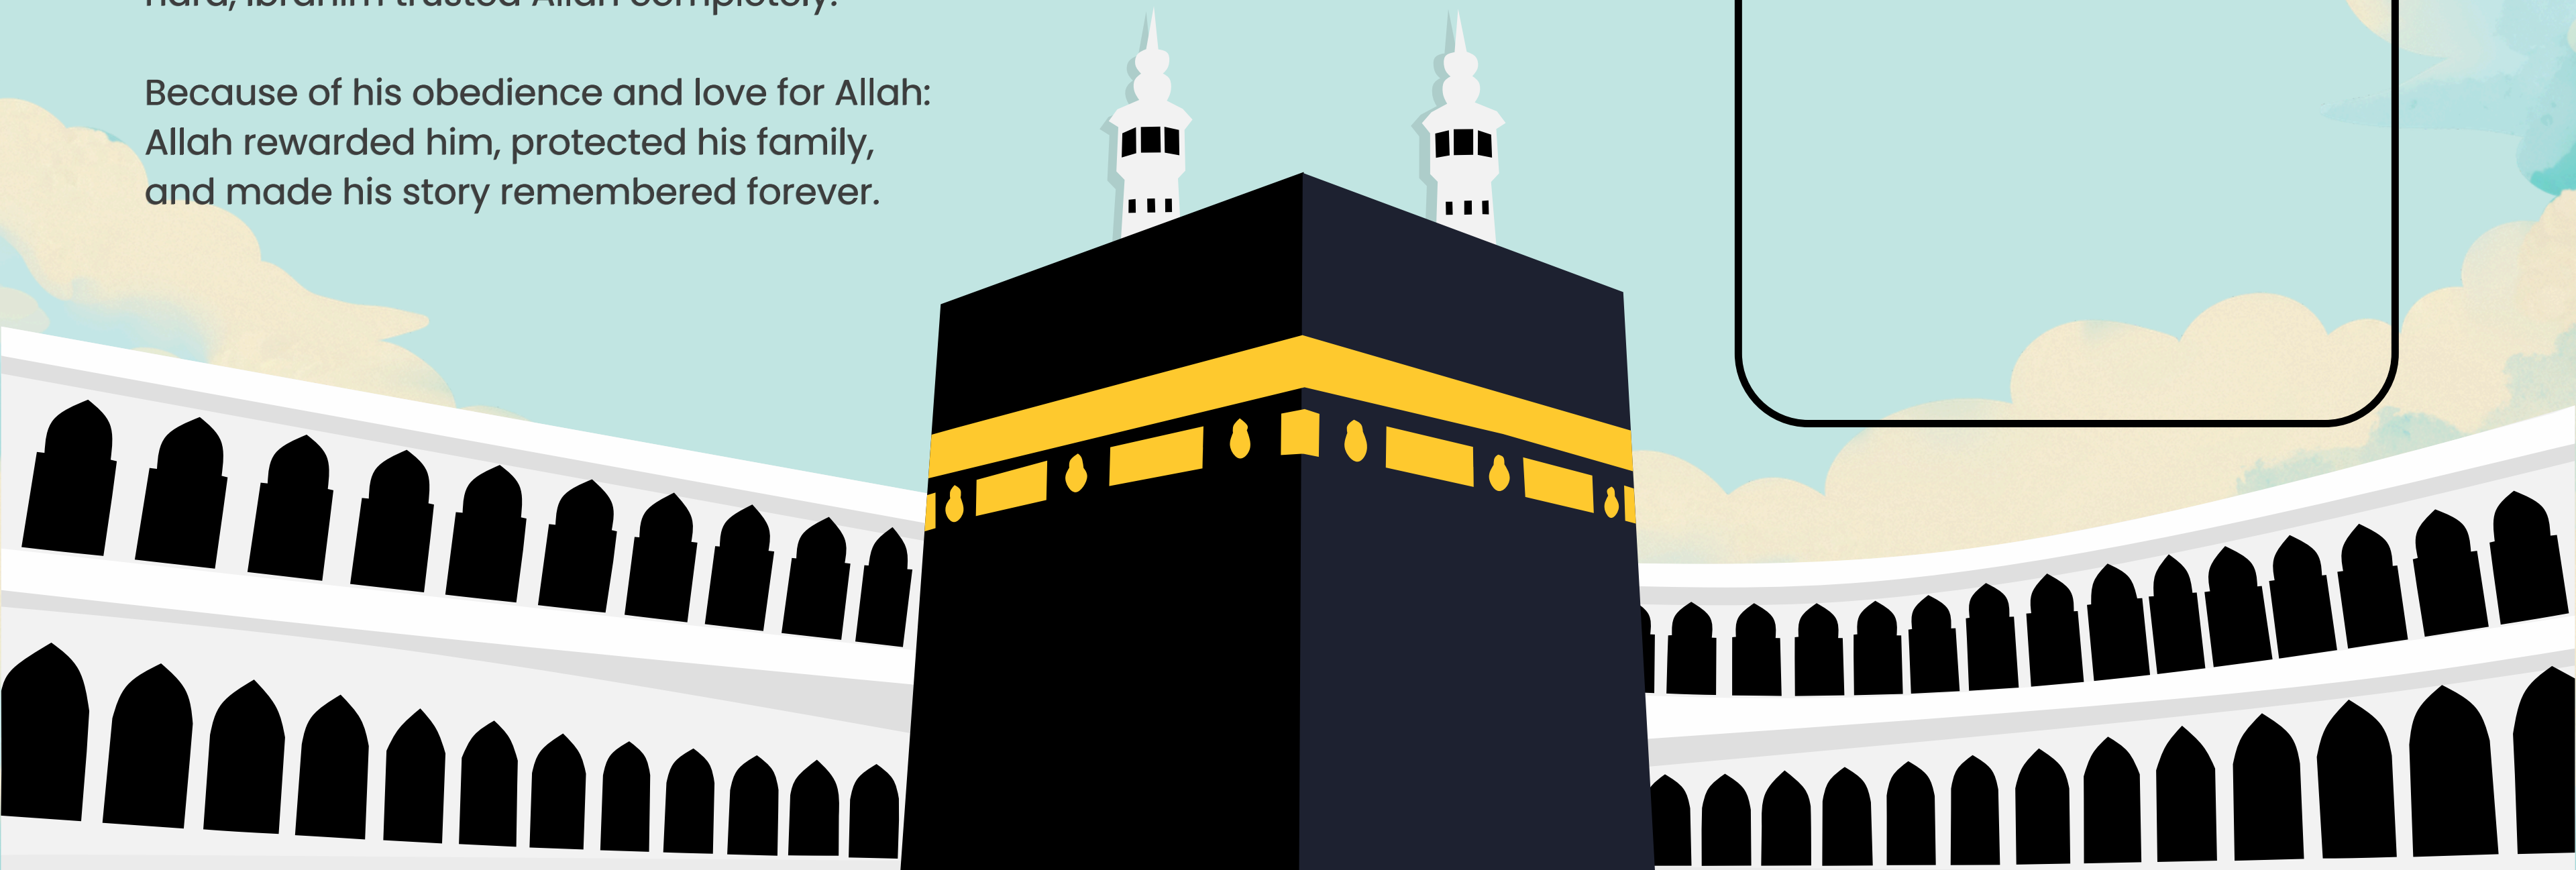

The Lesson of Trust

Allah asked Prophet Ibrahim (AS) to do something very difficult. Even though it was hard, Ibrahim trusted Allah completely.

Because of his obedience and love for Allah: Allah rewarded him, protected his family, and made his story remembered forever.

Hajar & Zamzam

Never Give Up

Hajar ran between the hills of Safa and Marwah looking for water for baby Ismail. She kept trying and trusting Allah. Then Allah blessed them with Zamzam water.

Throwing Pebbles at Shaytan

Shaytan tried to stop Prophet Ibrahim (AS) from obeying Allah. Ibrahim rejected Shaytan and stayed strong.

Pilgrims throw pebbles during Hajj to remember: rejecting evil, fighting temptations, and choosing goodness.

“Shaytan Pebble Toss” Activity

Inspired by the Jamarat

Write down in the pebbles, your bad habits here, like; anger, whining, fighting, e.t.c.

This will help kids throw away bad habits

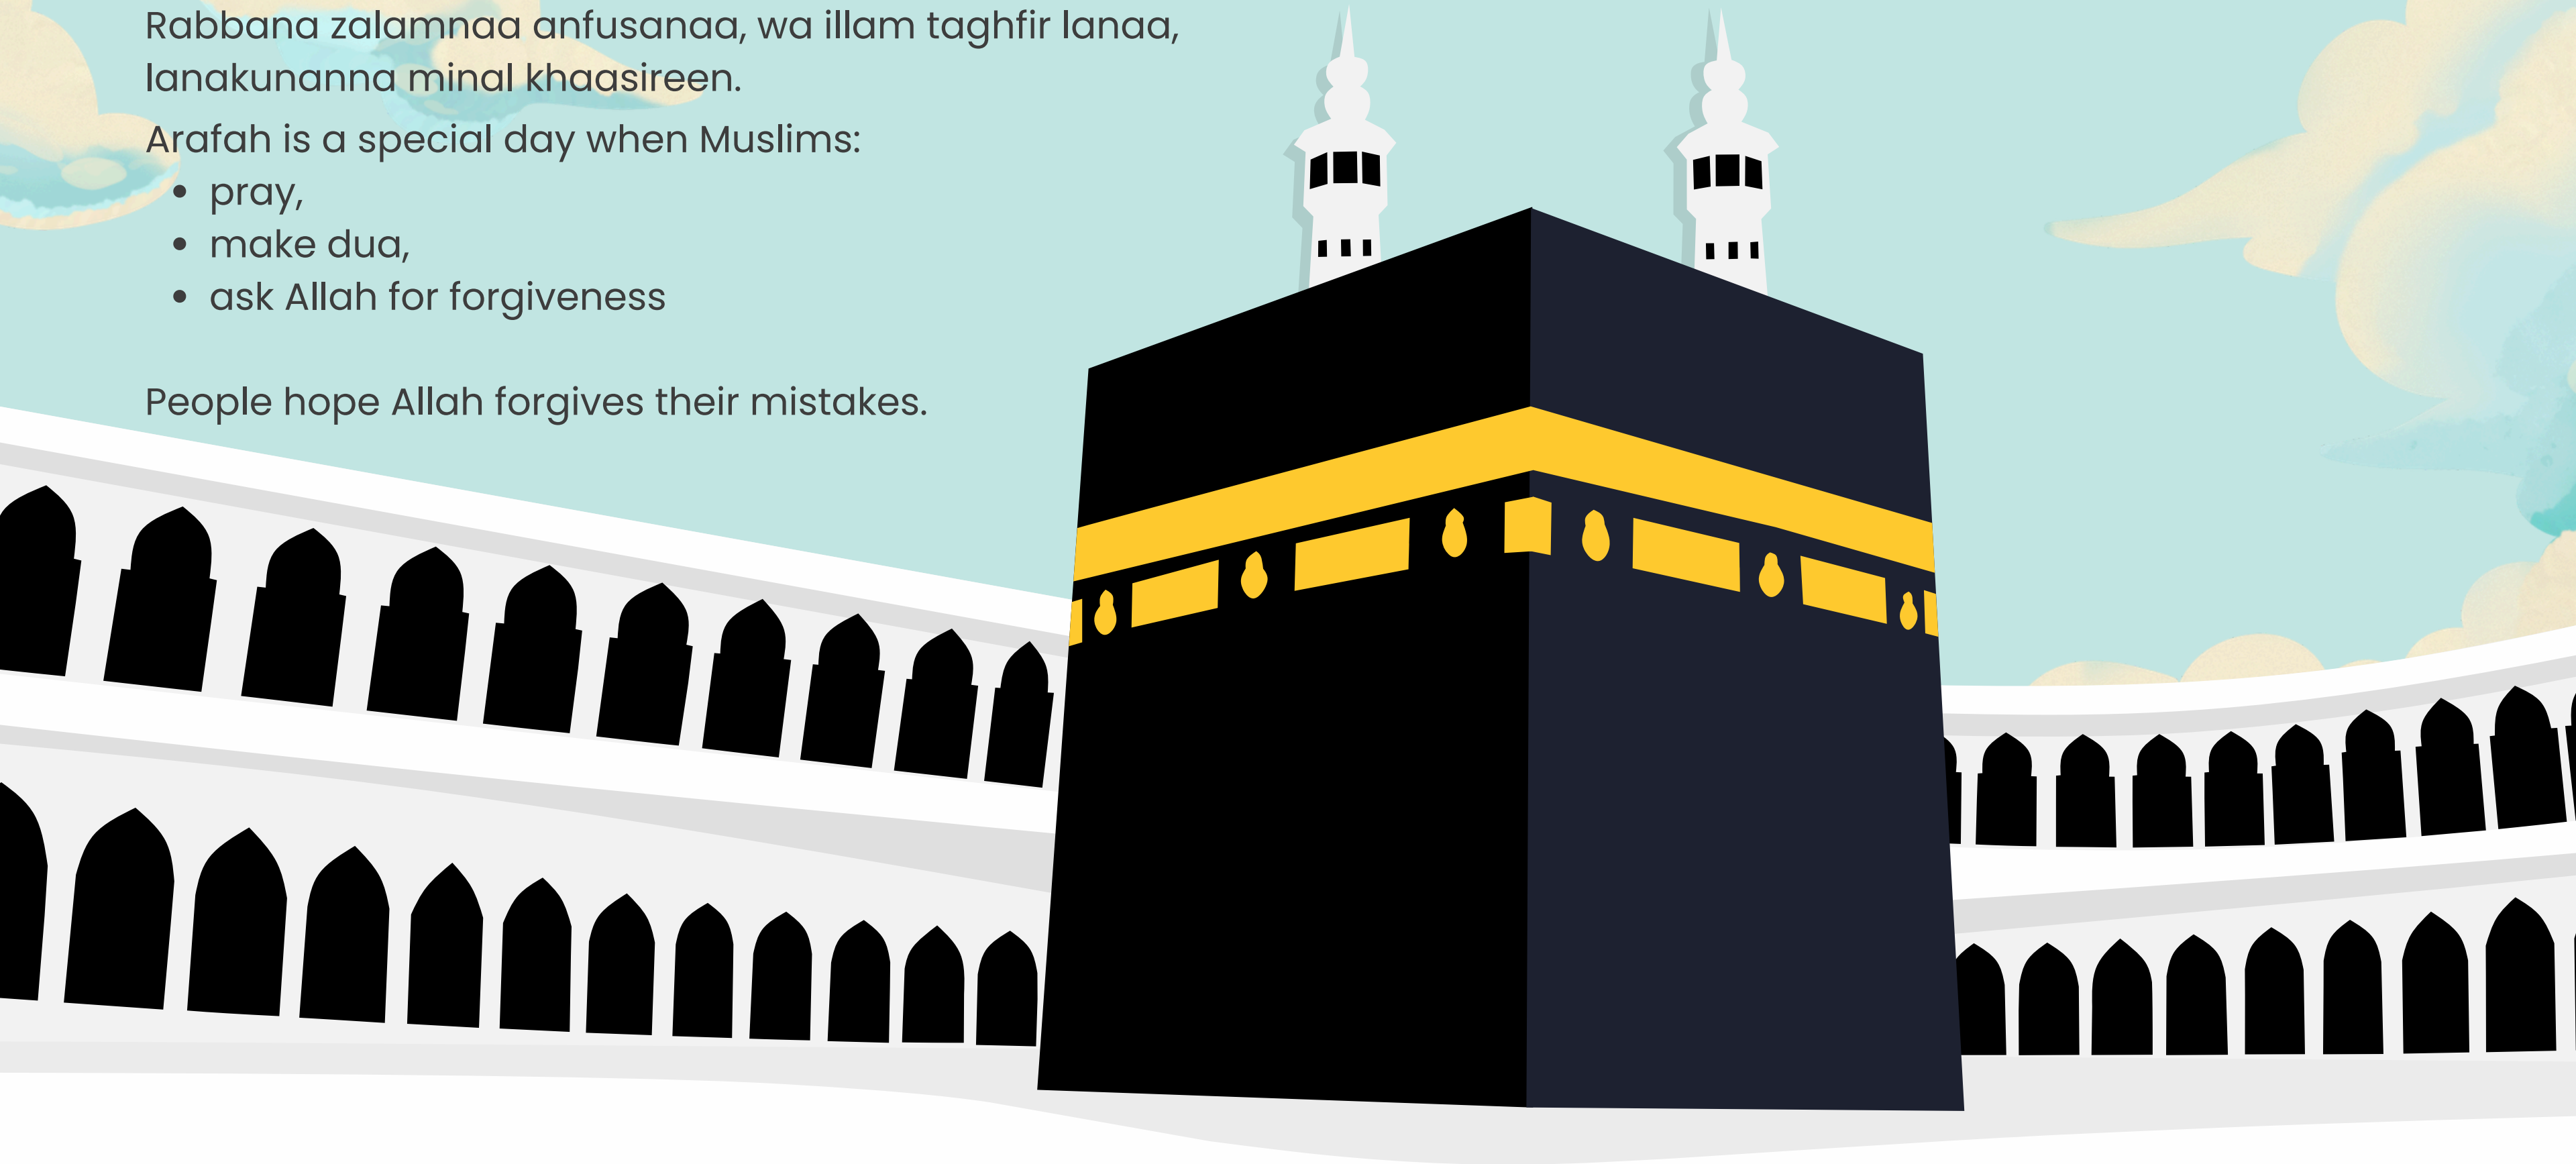

Dua & Forgiveness

Rabbana zalamnaa anfusanaa, wa illam taghfir lanaa, lanakunanna minal khaasireen.

Arafah is a special day when Muslims:

- pray,
- make dua,
- ask Allah for forgiveness

People hope Allah forgives their mistakes.

My Dua Clouds

Ya Allah help me...

Ya Allah bless my family...

Ya Allah forgive me...

The End of Your Hajj Journey... But A New Adventure Awaits

Alhamdulillah! You have completed your Hajj activity book. You have walked through the sacred steps of Hajj, learned its beautiful meanings, and discovered how Muslims around the world come together in worship and love for Allah.

Even though this book has ended, your journey of learning and faith continues every day.

What You'll Always Remember

Hajj teaches us to be:

- Patient and kind
- Grateful for Allah's blessings
- United as one Muslim family
- Mindful of Allah in everything we do

A Special Dua

اللهم تقبل منا حجنا

Allahumma taqabbal minna hajjana

"O Allah, accept our Hajj."
